

TERMS AND CONDITIONS 2022

Mission

Iconoclastic, radical and visionary, the Geneva International Film Festival (GIFF) is the Festival where the future of cinema is shaped. Film and series premieres, special guests, cutting-edge immersive and digital works are the distinctive features of GIFF. Each year, the Festival presents more than a hundred works – in all audiovisual formats - from all over the world.

The Geneva Digital Market (GDM), Switzerland's only event dedicated to audiovisual innovation and open to international professionals, is at the heart of the Festival. GDM explores the connections between film, television and digital and promotes the skills transfer between audiovisual fields.

Here are the regulations and procedure to register your selected film/series/digital work.

1. Festival dates

The 28th edition will take place from November 4 to 13, 2022.

2. Deadline for registration

Once your film/series/work has been selected, the registration deadline is August 31, 2022.

3. Competitions & other sections (lengths and genres)

Opening and closing credits are included in the specified durations. All films/programs genres are accepted, across documentary, fiction and animation, with the exception of films deemed to be advertising a service or product. Uncompetitive sections such as Highlights (established talents, major events), Future Is Sensible (social, ecological and technological foresight, futuristic visions), Pulsation (new authors and artistic trends), Pop TV (retrospective dedicated to television formats) and Sight and Sounds (music and audiovisual) are converging. Features, shorts, series, web formats, immersive (XR) and digital works as well as live performances can therefore be included in the same section. Film & Beyond, Tales of Swiss Innovation, Geneva Award sections enlighten and reward the career of key artists or pioneers in the audiovisual field.

6. Registration guidelines

The calls for entries for the next edition of the Festival are exclusively open to series, digital and immersive works (virtual reality, augmented reality and mixed reality). There is no call for submission for feature or short films. Selected films, series, music videos, web formats and digital works are registered online. If your work has been selected, you will receive a link to our online registration form. If that is not the case, please let us know immediately. Online registration generates a contract (the present Terms and Conditions) which you need to accept. For internal use, a screener copy of the final version of your film/work must be provided as soon as possible, via a downloadable link or file transfer (Vimeo, Dropbox, WeTransfer Filemail...).

7. Print traffic (selected works)

- a) IMPORTANT: when you send us your final projection copy, a pro forma invoice must be joined, with mention of the sender's name, work title, format, length, number of mediums (if several) and whether it's in colour or B/W;
- b) Incoming and outgoing shipping costs or customs fees for final projection copies of selected films/series/works are covered by the Festival, as long as they reach the Festival within the specified deadline. These copies will be returned to the sender only after the end of the Festival (allowing for exceptions when previously discussed);

Please send all material to:
Geneva International Film Festival
Print Traffic
Maison des Arts du Grütli
Rue Général Dufour 16
1204 Genève, Switzerland

- c) A screening copy (final copy for Festival projection) physical or dematerialized, must arrive at the Festival within the mentioned deadline, by October 5, 2022 and must be made available until November 14, 2022 (end of the event). If a single screening copy is programmed at the same time in other festivals/events, we must be informed of it as soon as you register the film/series/work, so that we can plan solutions and guarantee the best screening conditions;
- d) If the DCP copy is encrypted, one (1) KDM per projection must be made available for the duration of the Festival, as well as one (1) test KDM at an earlier date (for technical tests).

8. Insurance

Insurance costs for the period between receipt and return of the film copies are covered by the Festival. In case of loss or damage during this period, the festival is only liable for the replacement value of the blank copies.

9. Subtitling

All films/series not in original version English or French will be shown with English and/or French subtitles, at the Festival's expense. If we request a dialogue list with timecode, please ensure that it corresponds to the version/episode we will be screening.

10. Invitations

Depending on budget availabilities, the Festival's priority is to invite one of the directors/creators of each feature, series/ immersive work in competition. The Festival has the right to decide upon itineraries, in agreement with the guests. Invited directors/creators are requested to attend at least one of the screenings and participate in the Q&A following the film/series. Precise screening and travel dates shall be confirmed about 10 days prior to the start of the Festival.

11. Film programming

- a) Selected films/series/music videos/immersive and digital works may be screened in mixed programs, at the Festival's discretion;
- b) Films/series can be made available to professionals (press, jury or industry screenings) on the Festival's platform (Media Library), except in specific cases;
- c) In order to highlight each film/series/work, registration gives the Festival permission to use associated trailers and excerpts in its theater venues, on its website and on its promotional channels. Please make this material available in HD by means of file transfer or downloadable link;
- d) Depending on programming choices and in agreement with the rights holder, the selected web formats may be accessible on our website. With the rights holder's authorization, the films, series and digital works of the edition may be projected during rerun programs after the Festival (such as the GIFF Unlimited program);
- e) Any immersive work selected for the official program of the Geneva International Film Festival may be eligible for the joint program « curated by GIFF » at the 26. Internationale Kurzfilmtage Winterthur (8-13 Nov. 2022), in agreement with the rights holder.
